

Welsh Government

Consultation Document

Proposed Implementation of National Wide-Ranging Generic Conspiracy

Date of issue: 31 October 2017

Action required: Responses by 12 January 2018

Mae'r ddogfen yma hefyd ar gael yn Gymraeg.

This document is also available in Welsh.

© Crown Copyright

Overview	This is a consultation on the type and scope of a Welsh Government conspiracy to either cover up a scandal involving deeply immoral activity or to instigate activity of a deeply immoral and secretive nature probably featuring aliens or satanic rituals or both.
How to respond	Responses can be emailed or sent direct to: The Conspiracies Committee Welsh Government Cathays Park Cardiff CF10 3NQ e-mail: topoftheirgame@gov.wales
Further information and related documents	Large print, Braille and alternative language versions of this document are available on request.
Contact details	For further information, or queries regarding this consultation, please email: topoftheirgame@gov.wales The Conspiracies Committee Welsh Government Cathays Park Cardiff CF10 3NQ
Data protection	How the views and information you give us will be used Any response you send us will be seen in full by Welsh Government staff dealing with the issues which this consultation is about. It may also be seen by other Welsh Government staff to help them plan future consultations. The Welsh Government intends to publish a summary of the responses to this document. We may also publish responses in full. Normally, the name and address (or part of the address) of the person or organisation who sent the response are published with the response. This helps to show that the consultation was carried out properly. If you do not want your name or address published, please tell us this in writing when you send your response. We will then blank them out.

Names or addresses we blank out might still get published later, though we do not think this would happen very often. The Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 allow the public to ask to see information held by many public bodies, including the Welsh Government. This includes information which has not been published. However, the law also allows us to withhold information in some circumstances. If anyone asks to see information we have withheld, we will have to decide whether to release it or not. If someone has asked for their name and address not to be published, that is an important fact we would take into account. However, there might sometimes be important reasons why we would have to reveal someone's name and address, even though they have asked for them not to be published. We would get in touch with the person and ask their views before we finally decided to reveal the information.

Background

The Conspiracies Committee was set up in 1999 as a matter of urgency by the then First Minister Alun Michael to examine the possibility of covering up government activity in devolved areas where it was deemed the public would either not grasp the complexity of national security issues or would object to public money being spent on the practice of feeding thousands of Welsh citizens to rapacious inter-galactic time travelling Nazis in a craven act of appeasement designed to secure ministers a seat on the mother ship after the inevitable destruction of mankind.

The Conspiracies Committee has met every second Tuesday of every month ever since but has yet to get to grips with the intractable paperwork involved with mounting a conspiracy in a modern democracy. Because of this no conspiracies have been discussed in 18 years and Wales now runs the risk of being the only nation in wider Europe with no secretive plans to place the capricious whims of a moneyed elite above the rights of the wider population. To date the Welsh government has relied on incompetence and or pointless in fighting to achieve this. A state of affairs which any right thinking person knows cannot carry on if we are to hold our heads up on the world stage.

This consultation outlines the Welsh government's proposed conspiracies which, if implemented, would catapult us into the top tier of international bogymen for the tin foil hat brigade and that guy you went to school with who is now big on twitter and occasionally tries to get you to sign a petition against pig farming on Mars.

The proposed conspiracies would lead to a streamlining of clandestine operations within Wales and speed up the development of activities including but not exclusively:

- Secret handshakes.
- Alien abduction denial scenarios.
- Vast underground complexes housing alien and inter-dimensional technology.
- Satanic ritual etiquette training.
- Crop circle compensation schemes.
- The creation of the post of Conspiracies Commissioner.

What conspiracies are proposed?

Random alien abductions.

Official figures show that although sightings of UFOs in Wales far exceed the national average, the number of abductions is far below what would be expected from a nation of 3 million people. With this in mind it is proposed that a target of no less than ten abductions a year be set for the first ten years. It is also proposed to instigate a designated program of crop circle development featuring the faces of local celebrities.

Satanic Ritual etiquette training.

It has long been a bone of contention that when Welsh government ministers attend international events they are ill equipped for even the most rudimentary satanic shenanigans. Carl Sargeant was humiliated at a Bilderberg Group away day last year when he didn't even know which trouser leg to roll up and had to cover up the awkward silence with a Craig Charles impersonation which bordered on racism.

Vast underground complexes housing alien and inter-dimensional technology

In fairness this one already exists but this proposal would mean the Welsh government would be given a set of keys.

Crop circle compensation schemes

See alien abductions.

Secret handshakes

This would be decided by a simple yes no referendum.

The creation of the post of Conspiracies Commissioner

If conspiracies lack satisfactory levels of evil, secrecy or a fully costed Welsh language scheme the public must have a means of redress. The Conspiracies Commissioner will have the power to summon witnesses and if necessary suspend all conspiracy activity for a period not exceeding the lifetime of the human race.

Consultation Questions

The Welsh Government is seeking views on the proposed conspiracies and their practical application. In particular:

- 1. Do you agree with the proposed conspiracies?
- 2. Do you have any further comments in relation to the proposed conspiracies?
- 3. Have you considered the extent to which the implementation of random alien abductions will impact on local authorities in Wales?

Next Steps

Following the close of the consultation, all responses will be analysed and any necessary amendments made to the draft conspiracies. A summary of consultation responses will also be published on the Welsh Government website. It is intended that the draft conspiracies will be laid before the National Assembly for Wales so that they can come into effect on or before 31 March 2019.